

Your Canine Guardian Angel

I know that you must miss me,
By the tears rolling down your face.
But believe me when I tell you that,
I'm in a very good place.

There are meadows here to run in,
And plenty of rabbits to chase.
There are other dogs to play with,
To frolick with and race.

So please don't worry about me,
My spirit feels light as can be.

There's no more pain to plague me,
I'm young again and free.

And I'll be watching over you still,
of that you can be sure.
I'm your canine guardian angel,
And my love for you remains pure.

My sweet Gracie, I love you more than words can say and not a day goes by that I don't think about you. You are greatly missed. I pray I see you in Heaven one day. When you closed your eyes and slipped into eternity, a part of me went with you, and I will always grieve, as you were always so much more than just a dog to me. I always wished I was as good a person as you thought I was. We will see each other again sweet girl. I am sure that you knew how much I loved you.

Until we meet again, Gracie. I will share my heart with other dog friends, but you will always hold a special place in my heart. I know that you are in Heaven eating your favorite cookies, chasing squirrels, and watching over me. You are finally at peace in a calm and safe place.
