Dog Boarding

Dishes are provided so your pet's bowls will not be lost or forgotten. If you would like to maintain your dog's normal diet, please bring along their food in individually bagged meals or container. (Our kennel food is Purina E/N.) Beds and blankets can be supplied, or you can choose to bring your pet's as well as a few toys to keep them occupied. Raw-hides and nylabones are welcome but will be removed at the end of the day, for safety reasons.

The Cabin—Have your companion stay in any one of three special Cabins—complete with a TV and DVD player to stimulate your pet's mind as well as keep them care-free for hours. Every dog staying in a cabin receives a daily playtime with a caring counselor to keep them healthy. For dogs who may not enjoy running around, petting and brushing is always an option, too.

Your pet will receive the best of care when staying in our deluxe Cabins, including their very own bed.

The Lodge—Sturdy and secure, the Lodge is roomy and comfortable with solid walls for safety and privacy. Each Lodge has a raised resting platform and a drain below each to keep your pet dry in case of an over-turned water dish.

The Bed & Breakfast—For dogs under 20 pounds, the Bed and Breakfast is a cozy and comfortable space for your small companion. Safe and secure, the Bed and Breakfast's solid walls allow for privacy, yet is still open enough to be roomy. Bring your own bed or we can supply one for your pet. We always want to make sure your companion stays stress free, treats or toys may help make the transition easier on your pet.

Cat Boarding

A secluded room for our feline friends offers peace and quiet from the normally noisy kennels. Supervised time outside of their condo is available to play with some toys, climb the scratching post, or to sit and enjoy attention. Please feel free to bring your cat's normal food, a blanket, and toys for them to enjoy during their stay. Familiar scents will help keep your pet at ease and stress free. Litter boxes and dishes for food and water are provided so that your pet's will not be left behind or forgotten.
